

CONTENTS

---

---

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	7
CONTRIBUTORS	9
INTRODUCTION
Manuela Scarci	13
I. WOMEN AND THEIR FICTIONS
1. In Joan of Arc's Shadow: The Maid of Orleans as Identificatory Model in Some Seventeenth-Century Polemical Texts Jean-Philippe Beaulieu	25
2. Women's Voices in the Works of Suzanne de Nervèze Diane Desrosiers	35
3. Speaking of Women and Giving Voice to Women: The Example of Madeleine and Georges de Scudéry's Femmes         illustres ou les harangues héroïques Renée-Claude Breitenstein	45
II. WOMEN AND THEIR WRITINGS
4. Models for Women in the Letters of Huguenot Noblewomen 1560–1620 Jane Couchman	59
5. Early Modern Englishwomen's Miserere : Ambitious and Penitent Expression Patricia Demers	79
6. Female Impressions: Some Women Writers in Seventeenth-Century English Print Anne Lake Prescott	95

III. WOMEN AND THEIR BODIES

7. Honour and Shame: The Construction of Married Women's Bodies in Fifteenth-Century Spanish Law
Dana Wessell Lightfoot 113
8. From a Manly Knowledge to a Man's Helpmeet: Changing Conceptions of Midwives' Roles in Seventeenth-Century France
Bridgette Ann Sheridan 129
9. The Many Faces of Female Discipline: Gender Control, Subversion, and the Nun–Confessor Relationship in Golden Age Barcelona
Cristian Berco 149

IV. WOMEN AND THEIR AGENCY

10. The Role of Women in Their Kin's Economic and Political Life: The Sienese Case (End XIV–Mid XV Century)
Elena Brizio 169
11. The Role of Queen Maria Amalia of Saxony in the Planning of the Royal Palace of Caserta.
Francesco Divenuto 183

INDEX 201