

CONTENTS

---

---

List of Illustrations	7
Contributors	11
Acknowledgements	14
Introduction
The Multilayered Production of Meaning in Sixteenth-Century French Ceremonial Entries Nicolas Russell and H��l��ne Visentin	15
1. The French Royal Entry in the Renaissance: The Status of the Printed Text Margaret M. McGowan	29
2. Emblematic Discourse in Renaissance French Royal Entries Daniel Russell	55
3. Sic itur ad astra . Narration, figures c��lestes et platonisme dans les entr��es d’Henri II (Reims 1547, Lyon 1548, Paris 1549, Rouen 1550) Luisa Capodieci	73
4. Transformations in the Printing of Royal Entries during the Reign of Fran��ois I��r: The Role of Geofroy Tory William Kemp	111
5. Legate’s Luxury: The Entries of Cardinal Alessandro Farnese to Avignon and Carpentras, 1553 Richard Cooper	133
6. IN FVMO DARE LVCEM: Les triomphes faitz a l’entr��e du Roy     a Chenonceau (1559/60) Ben��t Bolduc	163
7. The Ritual Meaning of Henry IV’s 1594 Parisian Entry Ann W. Ramsey	189

Conclusion
From Communal Ritual to Royal Spectacle: Some Observations on the Staging of Royal Entries (1450–1600)
Lawrence M. Bryant	207
Index	247
Illustrations	251