

Contents

Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	1
The Other Voice	1
Historical Contexts	3
The Role of Convents in Women's Experiences in Renaissance Florence	3
Political Alliances and Patronage Ties	12
Religious Reform	16
The Author: Sister Giustina Niccolini	20
The Chronicle	22
Characteristic Features	22
Chronological Framework	24
Renaissance Art in the Chronicle	30
Afterlife of the Chronicle	33
Note on the Text and Translation	38
List of Abbreviations	39
The Chronicle of Santissima Annunziata delle Murate	41
[Introductory Letter]	42
[Preface]	44
[Early Years on the Rubaconte Bridge, 1390–1424]	48
Chapter 1. The first two mother foundresses	48
Chapter 2. Taking the habit and the rule of Father Benedict	52
[Early Years on Via Ghibellina, 1424–1439]	56
Chapter 3. Move from the Rubaconte bridge to via Ghibellina	56
Chapter 4. Orders and purchases made by Mother Abbess Sister Agata	61
Chapter 5. Name of the monastery and taking the black habit	64
Chapter 6. Death of the first mother abbess and election of her successor	66

Chapter 7. Privileges conceded by the pope with regard to the parish of Sant'Ambrogio	67
Chapter 8. First refectory, dormitory, and garden	70
[The Abbacy of Sister Scolastica Rondinelli, 1439–1475]	73
Chapter 9. Election of Scolastica Rondinelli and completion of the church	73
Chapter 10. Some miraculous events	75
Chapter 11. Enlargement of the church, singing in the choir, and playing the organ	83
Chapter 12. Construction projects funded by the Benci	86
Chapter 13. Cure of a mother by the Virgin Mary and other miracles	92
Chapter 14. Miraculous events that happened to several of our venerable mothers	103
Chapter 15. First flood and other events in Abbess Scolastica's government	107
Chapter 16. Events during Abbess Scolastica's government	112
Note 1. Constitutions of Abbess Scolastica	117
Note 2. Prayers of the first reverend mothers	121
[A Period of Instability, 1475–1530]	123
Chapter 17. Election of Abbess Caterina Ubaldini, the plague, the consecration of the church's altars, and other matters	123
Chapter 18. Physical improvements to the convent, permission to sell goods and to accept converse	126
Chapter 19a. Life of Sister Eugenia Benedetta	128
Chapter 19b. Arrival of father confessor of Queen Leonora	135
Chapter 20. Death of Abbess Caterina and election of Abbess Dimitilla	139
Chapter 21. Death of Abbess Dimitilla and election of Abbess Elena Bini, fire in and restoration of the scriptoria	141
Chapter 22. Life and death of Mother Sister Elena Orsini	145
Chapter 23. Death of Abbess Elena and election of Abbess Speranza Signorini, miraculous crucifix in the church	151
Chapter 24. Commitment of Lady Argentina Malaspina and her gifts	156

Chapter 25. Many building projects and changes of confessors	159
Chapter 26. Visit of Pope Leo X to the monastery	161
Chapter 27. Four mothers illuminated by divine grace	168
Chapter 28. Death of Abbess Speranza and election of Abbess Bonifazia Risaliti	177
Chapter 29. Construction of the scriptoria and other projects	179
Chapter 30. Queen Mother of France comes to the monastery	181
 [New Patterns of Patronage, 1530–1567]	 186
Chapter 31. Death of Abbess Bonifazia and election of Abbess Maria de' Bonsi	186
Chapter 32. Improvements in various places	189
Chapter 33. Death of the Reverend Salvatore Brandini and his succession by Girolamo Santucci of Urbino	190
Chapter 34. Changes from the abbacy of Abbess Maria de' Bonsi to Abbess Maria Tosinghi, and from Confessor Messer Girolamo Santucci to Messer Luigi Mariscotti	192
Chapter 35. Dispensation from Pope Paul IV regarding a bequest of 3,000 scudi	194
Chapter 36. 1557 Arno flood, donations from princes and Pope Paul IV	197
Chapter 37. Death of Abbess Maria Tosinghi and election of Abbess Maria III dell'Antella	204
Chapter 38. Miraculous signs associated with the deaths of some sisters	206
Chapter 39. Commitment of Lady Leonora Cibo and restoration of the Chapel of the Holy Sacrament	209
Chapter 40. Of various administrations and changes of confessors	212
 [The Council of Trent's Decrees and Beyond, 1567–1598]	 213
Chapter 41. Visit of the archbishop of Florence and announcement of the decrees of the Council of Trent	213
Chapter 42. Restoration of our choirs and some figures in our church	219
Chapter 43. Death of Abbess Maria III dell'Antella and election of Abbess Maria IV Canigiani	221

Chapter 44. Arrival of Sister Beatrice Vitelli, building of a garden wall, departure of one confessor and arrival of another	223
Chapter 45. Death of Abbess Maria IV Canigiani and election of Abbess Maria V Rinuccini	226
Chapter 46. A miracle related to Sister Zaccheria Signorini	228
Chapter 47. Arrival and departure of Lady Camilla Martelli	229
Chapter 48. An image of the mother of God and the rescue by her of Sister Marta	232
Chapter 49. How the glorious Virgin showed herself to many	236
Chapter 50. Miraculous fragrance from the tomb of Sister Orsina Carducci	239
Chapter 51. Arrival of Madonna Ginevra di Baccio Perini and events surrounding her	240
Chapter 52. Departure of Messer Niccolò Bessi and arrival of Messer Domenico Stiori, our confessors	242
Chapter 53. Long visit of Lady Hippolita Rossa and the taking of vows by her daughter Sister Maria Vittoria Pia	243
Chapter 54. Visit of the cardinal archbishop of Florence and some reforms	245
Chapter 55. Gifts from the Queen Mother of France and her letter regarding them	248
Chapter 56. Physical improvements to the monastery by our mothers	254
Chapter 57. Building and consecration of the Chapel of the Virgin	255
Chapter 58. Sister Angela Cibo takes the habit and builds the Chapel of the Virgin in our garden	258
Chapter 59. [skipped by convent scribe]
Chapter 60. Consecration of our church by the cardinal of Florence	263
Chapter 61. Death of Sister Faustina Vitelli and some of her works	264
Chapter 62. On the Arno flood in 1589 and works of restoration	267
Chapter 63. Inheritance of real estate from two sisters	271
Chapter 64. Death of Lady Lucrezia Cibo Sfondrato	274
Chapter 65. Enlargement of a church door and the Jubilee at our church	276
Chapter 66. Rebuilding the sacristy	278
Chapter 67. Origin of the Monastery of the Most Holy Conception	279
Chapter 68. Government of Abbess Maria V Rinuccini	290

Chapter 69. Election of Abbess Paziienza Tosinghi, first three-year abbacy	295
Chapter 70. Death of Lady Leonora Cibo and on her two women	297
Chapter 71. Property and other gifts to the monastery	301
Chapter 72. Death of Abbess Paziienza Tosinghi and election of Abbess Beatrice Benci, death of Confessor Messer Domenico Stiori	303
Chapter 73. Sepulcher in our church by Lady Giovanna Jimenez	305
Chapter 74. Remaking of the bell tower and a second bell	306
Chapter 75. An inheritance left to the monastery and purchase of property	308
Chapter 76. End of the abbacy of Abbess Beatrice Benci and beginning of the abbacy of Abbess Gostanza della Casa	311
Chapter 77. Favors to the monastery by popes, cardinals, and princes	315
Chapter 78. Figures and reliquaries in our monastery today	325
Concluding letter	334
 Bibliography	 337
 Index	 345