

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
Letters of Catherine de Médicis, Selections	63
Relazioni of the Venetian Ambassadors on the Affairs of France in the Sixteenth Century, Selections	111
Marvelous Discourse on the Life, Actions, and Deportment of Catherine de Médicis, Queen Mother (1576), Selections	141
Pierre de Bourdeille, Seigneur de Brantôme, “Second Discourse on the Queen, Mother of Our Last Kings, Catherine de Médicis,” Selections. From Book of Ladies, Poetry, and Funerary Writings	181
Appendix	209
“Letters of Naturalization for Lorenzo de’ Medici, Duke of Urbino, and Catherine, His Daughter”	210
“Copy of Letters Sent to the Queen Mother by One of Her Servants after the Death of the Late King Henri II”	212
An Alarm for the French and Their Neighbors. Composed by Eusèbe Philadelphé Cosmopolite, in the Form of Dialogues , Selections	225
The Tocsin, against the Slaughterers and Perpetrators of Confusion in France (1577), Selections	233
Oration Given at the Funeral Rites of the Queen Mother of the King by Monsieur Renaud de Beaune , Selections	241
Etienne Pasquier on the Death of the Queen Mother	250
Bibliography	255
Index	269