

Contents

Abbreviations	7
Introduction
The Controversy	9
The Content of the Documents	19
Translator's Note	34
Select Bibliography	36
Document Number One
Lazarus Spengler's Letter to Johannes Brenz, 26 March 1530	37
Document Number Two
Whether Secular Government Has the Right to Wield the Sword in Matters of Faith. Anonymous	41
Document Number Three
An Answer to the Memorandum That Deals With This Question: Whether Secular Government Has the Right to Wield the Sword in Matters of Faith. By Johannes Brenz	55
Document Number Four
Whether a Secular Government May Regulate Spiritual Matters, Restrain False Teaching, and Put Down Ungodly Abuses (preceded by an introduction bearing the title: An Admonition to Avoid Unnecessary and Vain Questions and Disputes...). Authorship uncertain (Andreas Osiander or Wenceslaus Linck?)	73
Document Number Five
Whether Secular Christian Government Has the Power to Ban False Preachers or Erring Sects and to Establish Order in Ecclesiastical Affairs. Authorship uncertain (Wenceslaus Linck or Andreas Osiander?)	93